

III CALL FOR THE PRIZE

"FRANCISCA DE PEDRAZA AGAINST GENDER VIOLENCE"

(2019)

June 18, 2019

The Prize, "Francisca de Pedraza against gender violence", is inspired by a woman from Alcalá de Henares who achieved one of the most important milestones in history as she was possibly the first woman to face power, achieving an unprecedented sentence.

The conquest of equality, respect for human dignity and the freedom of people must be priority objectives at all levels of our society.

In order to contribute to the promotion of such values, the Association of Mujeres progresistas de Alcalá de Henares has created this award, which will be granted annually, so as to distinguish and recognize the trajectory of those people, groups, entities or institutions that have stood out or stand out for their commitment and dedication in the fight against Gender Violence. For this reason, the Award and Prize-giving will take place in the days around November 25th, the date on which the commemoration of the International Day against Gender Violence is celebrated, in the Auditorium of the University of Alcalá de Henares.

A way of empowerment and overcoming gender violence is through the economic autonomy that provides decent employment. Thus, direct actions that companies or entities of the Third Sector perform on the employability of women victims will be rewarded in a special category.
